NEW HEIR TO ASTOR RICHES

Son is Born to Widow of Millionaire Hero Who Sank With Titanic.

WILL BEAR NAME JOHN JACOB ASTOR

Tragic Circumstances Lent Wide Interest to the Babe's Coming.

New York, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, survivors of the Titanic disaster in which her husband, the late Col. John Jacob Astor, lost his life last April, gave birth to a son at 8:15 o'clock this morning. The new arrival has been named John Jacob Astor, after its father. The baby becomes a direct heir to $3,000,000 of the Astor fortune.

News of the arrival of the Astor baby was made known in a bulletin issued by Dr. Edwin B. Craig, the attending physician. The bulletin read:

"Mrs. Astor has a son, born at 8:15 o'clock. His name is John Jacob Astor. Mother and son are in good condition."

The fact that its father proved himself a hero in the Titanic disaster by stepping aside to let women and children take places in the life boats and that the wife from whom he then parted was his bride of but a few months, coupled with the large fortune which was provided for the posthumous child, have lent unusual interest to the arrival of the youngest Astor.

The new Astor baby will be one of the few children born with a fortune as large as $3,000,000 in its own right. Col. Astor had provided that whether a child was a boy or a girl it should receive the same sum, and even if the stock brought more than one child, Col. Astor's will also covered that contingency, as it read as follows:

"I bequeath such number of separate sums of $3,000,000 each, as shall be equal to the number of my children who shall survive me other than my son, William Vincent Astor, and my daughter, Ava Muriel Astor."

The latter children are by the first wife.

OLD BOAT TO WOMAN FOR $18

New Evidence in Mysterious Case of Missing Mrs. Bogges.

PUSHING THE SEARCH

St. Louis, Aug. 14.—Dr. J. S. Bogges, of the marine hospital service, arrived here today to work with detectives in the search for his wife, Mrs. Ethel K. Bogges, who disappeared in Kansas City, August 2. The purse, glove, night dress and hat, taken from a boat when it was found at Fort Gage, Ill., are on their way to Columbus, where Mrs. Bogges' parents live.

A local river man has told detectives he sold the boat to a woman answering Mrs. Bogges' description, August 3, for $18. Dr. Bogges said that so far as he could learn Mrs. Bogges had only $37 when she left Kansas City. The fare berth to St. Louis would cost nine dollars. She spent $18 for the boat, and the purse, when found in the boat, contained $10. This accounts for the entire $37.

ODELL GIVES NEW VERSION

Contradicts Sheldon Regarding Harriman's Aid in Campaign.

SAW ROOSEVELT; THEN GAVE CASH

Raised $240,000 After His Call by Invitation at White House.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Former Governor Benjamin B. Odell, of New York, today told the senate committee investigating the funds of campaigns of Harriman's $240,000 contribution so different from that told to the committee by George R. Sheldon that members of the committee asked Mr. Odell how he accounted for the variances. The former governor remarked that Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the republican national committee in 1907, might have "told some white lies" to Mr. Sheldon about it. Sheldon was associated with Bliss unofficially in 1904 and was treasurer in 1908.

The substance of Mr. Odell's testimony was that President Roosevelt asked Mr. Harriman in 1904 to come to the white house to talk about campaign funds. Following that talk, said Mr. Odell, Mr. Harriman raised $240,000 for the campaign and turned it over to the republican national committee. Mr. Odell said he received $200,000 of that contribution for the New York state campaign and the balance remained in the hands of the national committee.

Roosevelt Had Agreed. Mr. Odell testified that Mr. Harriman had told him Col. Roosevelt had agreed that if necessary he would help out in the New York senatorial situation by appointing Senator Clarence M. DePew ambassador to France, thus leaving the senatorial contest clear for Frank S. Black, former governor of New York. Mr. Sheldon had testified that the contribution had been arranged between Mr. Bliss and Mr. Harriman and that Col. Roosevelt "never knew anything about it until a long time after the election." He denied that it had been a subject of correspondence between the former president and Mr. Harriman. Mr. Sheldon had further testified that Mr. Odell had come to Mr. Bliss to see about raising money for the state campaign and that later Mr. Harriman and Mr. Bliss had got together about $200,000, which was handed over to the state committee and never went to the national committee.

Chairman Clapp introduced the subject of the Harriman contribution by asking the former governor what he knew of Mr. Harriman having stated in a letter to Sydney Webster that Mr. Roosevelt asked Harriman to come to Washington during the campaign of 1904.

Showed Him Roosevelt Letter. "In October of 1904," began Mr. Odell, "I was requested by Mr. Harriman to lunch with him. I went to his office and during lunch he showed me a letter from President Roosevelt asking him to come to Washington. I was chairman of the state committee that year. Mr. Harriman asked me what I supposed the president wanted."

"I told him my opinion was that he wanted to consult with him as to New York and the financial condition of the committee. Mr. Harriman said he did not want to go, but after talking it over he told me he would. I requested Mr. Harriman to bring the president's attention to the senatorial situation in New York and tell him that the organization was in favor of Gov. Black for senator but yet had a kindly feeling toward Senator DePew, and would like to have him taken care of; that if Mr. Roosevelt could do so it would be a relief by jumping."

TIGER TO HAVE FANCY FUNERAL

Dog That Saved Lives in Hotel Fire Will Be Buried in Style.

HAD BANK ACCOUNT

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 14.—Lying in a little white silver handled casket in a local hotel with his body properly embalmed is the body of "Tige," the dog who saved several lives in a local hotel fire three years ago. Tige's funeral will be held tomorrow. The canine carcass will be taken to a cemetery in a rear house and lowered into a little grave by mourners.

Since the fire at which he played hero Tige has had a bank account of his own. Besides a regular allowance provided by Leslie Hatton, his owner, and others, the dog was given ten cents for every rat he killed. Food for the dog was paid for out of his bank account which had reached $800 Hatton says.

At the fire which threatened his master's hotel and the lives of many people Tige ran down the corridors and scratched on the doors until the guests were awakened in time to make good their escapes.

CARS COLLIDE IN SOUTH BEND

Passengers in a Panic as

Work Train and Inter-urban Car Hit.

ONE MAN IS KILLED

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 14.—An inter-urban car and a work train on the Chicago, South Bend & Northern Indiana railway met in a head-on collision in this city today. O. Luck, head carpenter for the railway was killed. Motorman F. C. Jellison, of the interurban, escaped by jumping.

The force of the collision, which occurred on a curve, drove the flat car at the head of the work train under the interurban and a panic resulted among the passengers. All escaped however, with only slight bruises.

WILSON YET UNDECIDED.

Uncertain About Making the Trip to Indianapolis.

Seagirt, N. J., Aug. 14.—"I am heartily in favor of the wool bill. I think the action of the house was entirely justifiable in passing the bill over the president's veto," said Gov. Woodrow Wilson today, speaking of the action of the house of representatives yesterday. "I suppose the bill has little chance in the senate," the governor added.

The governor said that he was as yet undecided about going to Indianapolis to attend the Marshall notification ceremonies. "McCombe" illness," he said, "has delayed things somewhat, but we expect to determine the question soon."

BEANS TWO FEET LONG BROUGHT TO THE CITY.

An assortment of string beans, some of them measuring more than 2.0 feet in length, were left at The Sentinel office this morning by Charles W. Greiner, manager of the Moellering brick yard, south of the city. The beans are some of the largest ever brought to the city, and will be placed on exhibition in the window at The Sentinel office.

FIND NEW HOARD OF BECKER CASH

Leased by Accused Police Official.

RUBIN AT SPRINGS

New York, Aug. 14.—District Attorney Whitman obtained a clue today of a second safety deposit box in which it was reported Police Lieutenant Becker had placed large amounts of money and securities. County detectives were sent to investigate.

Lieutenant Becker was asked today in prison about the deposits in various banks accredited to his ownership. He admitted that he $9,000 in a branch of the Corn Exchange bank. "I borrowed that money," said Becker, "and paid it out to builders to put up my house."

Lieutenant Becker would not talk further of the bank deposits. The grand jury will not meet until tomorrow when the murder indictments are expected.

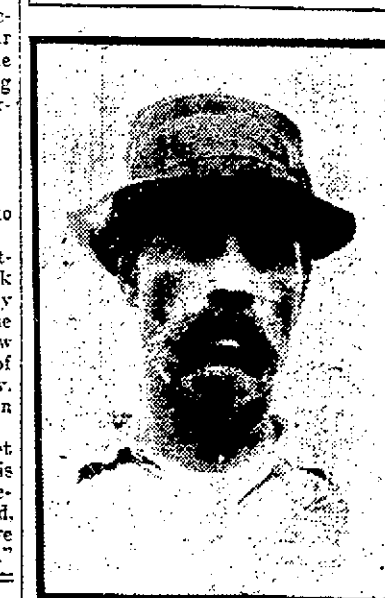

Jack Sullivan, who is confined in the Westside court prison with Rose, Webster and Vallon, almost came to blows with Rose today when the prisoners were brought into the corridor for the morning exercise. Sullivan had heard that Rose had informed the grand jury that Sullivan had played a part in the murder. When Sullivan saw Rose in the corridor he cursed him and called him a "snealer" and a "yellow hound." Sullivan told Rose he did not see any reason why the gamblers should have told untruths about him and drag him into the case. Sullivan then turned on Webster and denounced him.

Almost Lost His Life for 40 Cents

BOROS NICKLOS.

This is the fellow who was shot at five times by William Sillovo, the rolling mills district barber, yesterday afternoon because he refused to pay a barber bill of about 40 cents. The barber fled afterward and is still at large, as the police have not been able to locate him.

However, as long as he confines himself to the use of a revolver there is little danger that he will kill anybody unless he gets an innocent bystander for he proved himself a mighty poor marksmen provided he didn't use blank cartridges when he fired at Nicklos.

AMERICAN VICE CONSUL IS SHOT

Colombia is Being Investigated.

CASE IS SUSPICIOUS

Washington, Aug. 14.—Bruce McMaster, American vice consul at Cartagena, Colombia, has been shot and killed. Dispatches to the state department today reporting his death do not say if it was an accident or a murderous assault. Investigation is being made.

Mr. McMaster was killed last Sunday "while hunting," according to the report to the state department, which came from American Consul Kemper at Cartagena. An attack upon his life two years ago and the strain imposed upon his relations with the Colombian judicial authorities as a result of his efforts to secure full punishment for the would-be assassins excites the suspicion of officials here as to the cause of his death.

About two years ago because he had killed a native in self-defense McMaster was attacked by several Colombians and dangerously wounded. He was arrested on the charge of murder and found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment by an appellate court. The United States government intervened and secured a new trial which resulted in his acquittal in June, 1910, but he has ever since been fearful of further violence.

AEROPLANE IS WRECKED.

But Lieut. Foulers, Army Aviator, Escapes Unhurt.

Maneuvers Headquarters, Stratford, Conn., Aug. 14.—Lieut. Foulers, of the United States aviation corps, while out scouting in his machine today made an exceedingly rapid descent while over Botsford and when reaching the ground the machine struck a stone wall and was smashed. The lieutenant had started to glide at a height of 1,500 feet when something apparently went wrong. The drop was precipitate. The lieutenant was unhurt.

A squad from the aviation corps was sent to Botsford to assist the lieutenant in salvaging the aeroplane. At Botsford last night there was the camp of the Fifth U. S. regiment and the First Vermont, and Lieutenant Foulers left here early today to scout in that vicinity.

STEEL BILL MEETS VETO

Taft Sends Measure Back With His Emphatic Disapproval.

INCLUDES A RAP FOR COMMITTEE

Criticizes Bill for Departure from Principle of Protection.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Within three hours after President Taft had sent back the steel tariff bill to congress with a message of disapproval, the house today passed it over his veto. The vote was 173 to pass it, 83 against it and one present and not voting. It is not expected to re-pass the senate.

Washington, Aug. 14.—President Taft today vetoed the steel bill.

In a message to congress, the president said he disapproved the measure because it provided for revenue only and took no account of protection for American industries. He condemned the ways and means committee for refusing public hearings on the bill.

Mr. Taft gave as another reason for his veto that the bill affected not only the iron and steel industry, but fifty-nine allied industries, which he said were worthy of separate classification.

Mr. Taft wrote he was not prepared to say there were no items in the steel schedule which might not well be reduced but he pointed out that its ad valorem rate of duty was an apparent reduction of 15 per cent. from the duties of the Wilson law.

"A bill for a complete revision of this schedule was presented to me a year ago in the extra session of this congress," wrote the president. "Many increases and decreases of rates are now made from those named in the former measure. The changes are not explained and indicate the hasty method pursued in the preparation of both. Is it not fair to ask, either on the basis of protection or revenue, which was right?"

"On the whole, therefore, I am not willing to approve of legislation of this kind which affects not only millions of workmen and their families dependent on them, but hundreds of millions of dollars worth of stocks of goods in the hands of storekeepers and distributors generally, without first providing for a careful and disinterested inquiry into the conditions of the whole industry."

"From the outset of my administration I have urged a non-partisan study of the facts. I have provided the means for securing such information in the appointment of a tariff board. Their thorough work, already completed on several schedules, has justified my confidence in this method. The principle is endorsed by chambers of commerce and boards of trade in almost every city of importance in the country. The proposed bill has not been framed on the basis of any such study of the industry. "Aforementioned, its rates are fixed with no

ASK C. S. BASH TO MAKE RACE

Progressives Want Him to Run for Congress on Third Ticket.

LITMAN WILLING TO STEP ASIDE

Rumors of Resignations from the Republican County Ticket.

Progressives of the Twelfth district, who favor the organization of a third party, have inaugurated a movement which they hope will result in the nomination of Charles S. Bash, of this city, as the progressive candidate for congress.

Announcement of this was made today by Colonel D. N. Foster, chairman of the third party organization in Allen county. Mr. Bash's candidacy was favorably discussed at the meeting held Tuesday night, at which time the progressives named August 31 as the date for the county and congressional conventions.

Mr. Bash has unflatteringly supported Theodore Roosevelt for president, first as the candidate for nomination at the Chicago convention and later as a nominee on the third party ticket. He is one of the best known business men in Northern Indiana and local progressive leaders declare that if he can be induced to accept the nomination it will be handed to him.

"We can elect Mr. Bash if he becomes a candidate for congress," said Mr. Foster this morning. "He is well known, especially throughout the Twelfth district, and maintains a strong belief that Theodore Roosevelt should be elected president of the United States."

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall arrived in Fort Wayne at noon today and will be joined this evening by Governor Marshall for a trip to Columbia City, their former home, and to Valparaiso. During the early part of the afternoon Mrs. Marshall enjoyed a shopping expedition about the stores of the city and incidentally met a number of acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall go to Columbia City this evening, where tomorrow the governor will speak at the Whitley county old settlers' meeting. Tomorrow night Mr. Marshall will deliver an address at the commencement exercises at Valparaiso university.

"Mr. Marshall is going to keep politics out of his address at Columbia City tomorrow," said Mrs. Marshall. "There is no need to talk politics to the people there, especially the old settlers of Whitley county. He is going to give them a 'home' talk."

L. T. BAILEY QUILTS THE PARTY RANKS

Whitley County Committee man Says He is Done With the G. O. P.

THIRD PARTY CALL

Local republican leaders have just been informed that a number of Whitley county republicans are planning to leave the regular ranks, and the first to make the "hop" is Lloyd T. Bailey, a member of the republican county central committee, who after submitting his resignation, announces himself as provisional county chairman of the progressives and has issued a call for a mass meeting to be held at the Tuttle opera house at Columbus City, Thursday, August 27, for the purpose of perfecting a county organization. All who are in sympathy with the movement for a third party organization have been asked to attend the meeting.

Mr. Bailey was one of the leading republicans of Whitley county and had long been identified with the G. O. P. His resignation comes as a surprise to local republicans and to County Chairman F. L. Myers. In submitting his resignation Mr. Bailey writes as follows:

"I resign as a member of the republican county central committee because I cannot conscientiously acquiesce in the methods used in nominating Mr. Taft. I believe in the majority rule. I do not believe that any set of bosses should have the right or power to thwart the will of the people as they did at the republican convention at Chicago.

"Both the old parties are controlled by influences of special privileges and are dominated by political bosses, and I have decided that there is no hope for the proper conduct of our government through either, as they are now constituted. I believe that the new party can and will best serve the people, and I am going to join with it in its fight by the people and for the people.

"After careful and deliberate thought I choose to take the course that I believe to be right, and the one that offers the most in the way of justice and equality to all. From now on I will support the progressive party and use all honorable means known to me for its success.

"LOYD T. BAILEY."

BOYS' CITY NOW A LIVELY PLACE

Every Form of Out-Door Activity Among Lads at Winona Lake.

300 WILL BE THERE

Winona Lake, Aug. 14.—Every form of out-door activity is now seen at Boys' City on the south shore of Winona Lake, for a small army of boys has gathered there for the annual summer camp which is held under the auspices of Kappa Sigma Pi, or the Modern Knights of St. Paul. More than eighty boys, with their adult leaders, and coming from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, are already at the camp, and additional crowds are expected who will swell the attendance close to the three hundred mark. The city organization has already been effected, and the council has had several matters of discipline to come before it. In addition to the boating, bathing and auditorium facilities, the boys are given instruction in many things. They have daily sessions in the Boys' City chapel with the grand chaplain of the organization, Rev. D. H. Jensen, of Cincinnati. On Monday the Winona postmaster gave them a talk on postage laws and mailing, and on Tuesday there was a fire demonstration and instruction in putting out fire.

The public is invited to visit and inspect the life at Boys' City, as the management feels that in Kappa Sigma Pi, the Boy Scouts and other movements which are represented in the Boys' City inhabitants, the ideal forms of work with boys have been discovered and worked out.

Dr. James S. Martin and Dr. John Royal Harris were the speakers at the opening day of the eighth annual Christian Citizenship Institute. The sessions of this institute began on Monday, August 12, to continue through ten days. They will be held in the Island pavilion. Dr. Martin discussed "What Constitutes a Christian Nation" at the 9 o'clock hour, and at 10 o'clock Dr. Harris presented the first of his lectures on "World Helpers." Prof. James M. Coleman, who is to give a number of lectures on socialism throughout the institute, was unable to reach Winona in time for his 4 o'clock hour, but his place was taken by Dr. Martin, who gave an affirmative answer to his lecture on "Should the Bible Be Read in Our Public Schools?" In addition to these speakers Dr. Lyman E. Davis and Rev. David B. Johnson will appear before the institute in groups of lectures on "The Bible Key to Social Problems" and "A Complete Social Program," respectively, and other features will contribute to the merit of the program.

Two strong attractions, among the biggest of the season, will be offered on Thursday to the patrons of Winona Lake. The celebrated Venetian Night, which was postponed from last Wednesday because of the heavy rains, will be given on Thursday evening in added splendor, and on Thursday afternoon there will be the final performance of "The Lost Princess—Bo Peep." Given for the first time at any place on Monday evening, and met with marked success. There was a capacity audience, whose members displayed enthusiastic appreciation of the libretto, the personnel of cast and chorus, and of the operetta from beginning to end. It will be repeated on Wednesday evening, as well as Thursday afternoon.

The posthumous Venetian Night from last Wednesday because of the heavy rains has only given those in charge additional time in which to prepare for it. As a result it will be more elaborate in every detail, and will eclipse in every respect the Venetian Nights of former years. The meeting of Anthony and Cleopatra on the River Nile will be a beautiful spectacle, and in addition there will be a large parade of resplendent professional and amateur floats. A record-breaking crowd is anticipated.

WIND AND RAIN DO BIG DAMAGE

Many Indiana Towns Suffer in Severe Storm Tuesday.

LOSS WILL BE HEAVY

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 14.—Lafayette and vicinity was visited by one of the worst storms in years yesterday afternoon and considerable damage was done to the corn in Tippecanoe and Benton counties.

The rain was accompanied by a strong wind and severe lightning. Telegraph and telephone communication was cut off from towns in every direction. The greatest damage is reported from Montmorenci and Otterbein and in Benton county.

Lightning struck the Emsing building in North Sixth street and the dozen clerks in the office of the general headquarters of the Industrial Protective Association of Retail Clerks were thrown into a panic.

The bolt struck the flagpole on the building and tore all the pictures and decorations from the walls of the rooms. Dr. Frank Loder, who has offices on the second floor of the building, was stunned by the shock and was in a dazed condition for some time. The building was damaged by the lightning.

The rain fell in torrents and the homes of people living in the lower part of the city were flooded. The damage to the corn crop and the oats in the shock will amount to thousands of dollars. The city of Lafayette is also a heavy loser by streets being washed out.

ELECTRIC WIRES SUFFER.

Much Other Damage Results From Storm in Howard County.

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 14.—Telephone and telegraph communication in Howard county is demoralized on account of a heavy wind and rain storm. Telephone poles are lying across the road for a mile near Sharpsville. The corn and oats crops are reported ruined and on one farm part of an apple orchard was blown down. A barn belonging to A. F. Dehon, two miles south of Kokomo, was destroyed by lightning, entailing a loss of $2,000 and the death of one horse. On another farm the roofs were blown from a dwelling house and barn. One thousand people were turned out of Gentry brothers' circus when it was feared the tent would blow down.

CHAUTAUQUA TENT DOWN.

Lightning at Greensburg Kills Working Telephone Lineman.

Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 14.—An electric storm here yesterday afternoon uprooted trees and did considerable damage to crops. Frank Severson, a telephone lineman, was struck by lightning and killed while at work on a pole. The wind made havoc of the chautauqua grounds, blowing down the main tent and wrecking many of the smaller ones in which campers are living. William J. Bryan, who was billed to speak in the big tent last night, gave his lecture at the opera house.

MUCH TIMBER DESTROYED.

Wind Along Wabash River Causes Heavy Damage to Trees.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 14.—The wind storm which swept over this county shortly after noon yesterday, was the most severe in years, and has done heavy damage. The storm drove to the south of the Wabash river at Logansport and moved down thousands of dollars worth of timber in the densely wooded sections of the county. In the city much damage was done to residence property by falling trees. Chick Meyers, a former hunting in the woods south of the city, was felled by a big tree and severely injured.

ROUTINE BEFORE THE COUNCILMEN

Mass of Business Disposed of at the August Meeting of Council

WORK DONE QUICKLY

At its meeting last night the city council disposed of a big list of routine business, sending the Harmer board-ground proposition back to the park board with the recommendation that condemnation proceedings be instituted, sending the board of works requests for appropriations to the finance committee and taking a shot at the Calhoun street sidewalks in an effort to show that the work is not being done as rapidly as it ought to be.

A message from the mayor showing what has been accomplished in the year and what is expected next year was received and will be printed in the regular proceedings together with the controller's report of general finances and those of the electric light plant. Mr. Cuthrell's suggestion that an expert accountant be secured was received favorably and will be carried out.

The revised ordinance adding to the city part of the Driving park ground and generally conceding a movement to get a bar for the fair grounds went through, and ordinances carrying approval of the contracts for grade separation at Fairfield avenue and the Wabash tracks and at Broadway were passed.

Estimates for grade separation at Harrison street, Thompson avenue and Taylor street were approved.

Requests for appropriations aggregating $8,400 for the use of the board of public works were sent to the committee on finance, and the same committee also got the request for an increase in the salary of the meat and milk inspector. Thieme drive and the strip of ground between the Broadway bridge and the new pumping station were transferred to the park board for boulevard purposes.

PLAYS "DEARIE" AT $15,000 PER HOUR

Organist Has Something of a Snap in Amusing Mr. Frick.

WORKS HOUR A DAY

New York, Aug. 14.—Pity the hard lot of Archer Gibson. He gets $15,000 a year for fingering a $100,000 organ for an hour a day, and rendering "Dearie" between the classical thunderings and groanings of the costly pipes. Also he gets a summer home—you would wish you owned it if you saw it—and a nice, comfortable automobile.

Archer works at the above mentioned laborious task to delight the musical soul of Henry Clay Frick, multi-millionaire steel magnate, whose summer home is at Frick's Crossing, Mass. Every day at 2 p. m. the phone rings in the Gibson house and the organist motors over to the Frick mansion. There in the music hall, the gruff money king sits waiting for his daily music.

While the nimble fingers of Organist Gibson rip out peal after peal of stuff that dead men wrote—the kind that no one could see any merit in while the composers were alive—Henry Clay Frick, the tips of his strong fingers joined, listens in silence. After a particularly weird succession of crashes and thunders from the costly organ the millionaire's countenance loses its former expression of rapt interest. He leans forward easily as the music bursts in glorious finishing flare.

"Play 'Dearie,'" he commands. Then the $100,000 organ sends forth the strains of that once popular ballad, strains that the common, uneducated, go-as-you-please piano, used to know before everybody began "doing it." Usually a few repetitions of the ballad are enough to allow a fresh start on the previous heavy stuff. And so the hour of music passes.

SENATE CERTAIN TO BLOCK BILL

Close Shave to Pass Wool Measure Over Veto in House.

IT WAS A STRUGGLE

Washington, Aug. 14.—It required a close count of noses and the establishment of a new parliamentary precedent yesterday afternoon to enable the house to pass the wool tariff revision bill over President Taft's veto. The vote was 174 in favor and 80 against, 19 republicans voting with the democrats to override the veto.

The bill now goes to the senate for a similar trial, but to meet in all probability a different fate. The democrats and progressive republicans entertain no hope of obtaining a two-thirds vote of the senate for the passage of the bill. No further attempt will be made to bring about a reduction of the wool tariff at this session, and in fact the entire tariff revision movement is now at a standstill, with nothing accomplished in the direction of lightening the burden of the tariff tax on the people.

Old Guard Challenges Votes.

The struggle of the democrats to win a two-thirds affirmative vote for the passage of the wool bill over the veto was the feature of the incident in the house. The regular republicans saw it would be close and questioned every vote added to the affirmative at the conclusion of the roll call.

Representative Levy, of New York, said he was present, but did not hear his name called. This was disputed by Representative Longworth, who asserted he saw Levy outside the chamber at the time. Levy's vote was counted. Representative Lewis said he was in the doorway when his name was called and Speaker Clark ruled this to be sufficient qualification.

Have Four Votes to Spare.

Ten regular republicans voted "present," being paired with absentees. That made the number of representatives present 284, of which 176 is two-thirds. But Speaker Clark ruled that only two-thirds of those voting yes or nay, or 170, was necessary, and declared the bill passed over the veto, with four votes to spare.

Some regular republicans opposed the ruling, but Minority Leader Mann upheld the speaker and the protests were withdrawn.

The republicans who voted to pass over the veto were Akin, of New York; Anderson, Davis, Lindbergh, Miller and Stearnson, of Minnesota; Cooper and Morse, of Wisconsin; Helgeson, of North Dakota; Kent, of California; Lafferty, of Oregon; LaFollette and Warburton, of Washington; Norris and Sloan, of Nebraska; Woods, of Iowa, and Anthony Rees and Young, of Kansas.

Anthony never had voted with the progressive republicans before. He had a close shave for renomination last week.

Disagree on Sugar Bill.

Less than an hour after the wool bill had been repassed in the house the conferees on the sugar tariff bill met and disagreed.

They determined to report to the house and senate that it had been found impossible to reach a compromise between the Underwood and Lodge-Bristow bills.

MOTHER APPEARS WITH BLACK EYE

Virgil Van Horn Accused of Having Struck Her With His Fist.

CITY COURT DOCKET

Mrs. Isabelle Van Horn, with one of her eyes blackened as the result of a blow struck by Virgil Van Horn, a son fifteen years old, was in the city court today to testify against the lad on an assault and battery charge, but no evidence was heard as he was recognized to the juvenile court in charge of the probation officer.

The boy has been giving her trouble for some time and as she was not able to control him she sought the aid of the courts and filed an affidavit as the attack is said to have been an aggravated one.

Another Woman There Too.

Mrs. Anna Seltentright was also in court with a bruised face and Frank Gebhart, of 1920 Walton avenue, was fined $10 and costs for having struck her in the mouth.

She went to visit her children at the home of her divorced husband there and met a daughter of Gebhart and accused her of having been the cause of her family trouble. The father resented this and struck the accuser with his fist.

The Other Cases.

Ed Moran was drunk when he was brought in this morning and he was held a day for trial. Frank Allen was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness, and Jim Wagner and Charles Harknider were let go.

Earl Bernard and Mike Matezat, train climbers, wanted to get out of town and were given the opportunity, and Lewis Jordan was fined $5 and costs for vagrancy.

MERE BOYS AVERT WRECK DISASTER

Flag Oncoming Train as It Neared Broken Rail at Hinsdale, Ill.

RED PAPER AS SIGNAL

Chicago, Aug. 14.—The presence of mind and sheer nerve of three small boys, all under 12 years of age, averted a serious wreck on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad at Hinsdale, Sunday afternoon.

With the red paper covering of a cracker box as a signal, Robert Chubb, 10 years old; his brother, Sheldon, 7, and Galuth Stearns, 12, flagged and stopped a fast eastbound train from Aurora and prevented it from running upon a broken rail.

The three lads were returning from the business section of Hinsdale Sunday afternoon. They had been warned by their parents to be careful near the railroad tracks, and as it was necessary that they should cross the right of way of the Burlington, they started across on the run.

Discovers Broken Rail.

Stearns was the last of the three to cross and he had hardly stepped upon the tracks when he saw the broken rail. The break was about a foot long and was directly under the tower at Washington street, so close to the tower that the operator was unable to see it.

Stearns called the two Chubb boys back to see the break, and as the three gathered about the spot Robert Chubb saw a passenger train in the distance, coming at full speed.

Visions of a disaster flashed through the minds of the boys. They knew that if the train struck the broken rail there would be a serious accident. The wreck at Western Springs was still fresh in their minds, and yet for a moment they saw no way to prevent a second horror.

Boys Decide on Action.

"We've got to flag that train," said Robert Chubb to his companions suddenly, and he ran along the tracks toward the oncoming cars. At first he waved his hands frantically, hoping that the engineer would see him, and his companions waved and shouted, but apparently in vain.

Then Robert noticed the red paper covering of a cracker box lying at the side of the track. He picked up the red paper, and again started running toward the train.

Stearns in the meantime had found a red handkerchief in one of his pockets, and he, too, waved a danger signal to the engineer. At last the boys heard a blast of the whistle which told them that their signal had been seen, followed closely by the sound of the brakes upon the wheels of the train.

Engineer Views Break.

The boys did not leave the track until the train was brought to a standstill about twenty yards away. The engineer climbed down from his cab and asked what was the trouble. The boys told him of the broken rail a few rods away. The engineer hurried to the spot.

"Boys, if we had hit that rail there would have been a lot of people killed. I have seven coaches on my train and they are all full," he exclaimed after an examination.

The train backed to a switch and on to another track and proceeded on its way to Chicago. So swiftly was the little drama enacted that none of the passengers knew how near they had been to death or injury.

"We did not think it was anything," said all three boys, when asked about the saving of the train yesterday. "We did not have much time to think about being run over."

SHE WEDS TO ESCAPE JAIL.

Chivalrous Harnessmaker Weds Girl Arrested on Street.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 14.—An unusual incident occurred at the central police headquarters when Bertram Killefner, of 215 1/2 South Sixteenth street, procured the release from custody of pretty Bessie Harris by marrying her then and there. The young woman had been arrested by Traffic Officer Hicks at Twelfth and Walnut streets for indecent exposure upon the street. Magistrate MacFarland considered sending her to the county prison for a short time, and she was detained in the city hall. While waiting there she sent an appeal for help to Killefner, harnessmaker, who has been in love with her, it is said, for the last two years. Killefner dropped his work and hastened to the city hall, where the young woman sobbed out her troubles to him. Responding to her piteous appeal, Killefner said that he would do what he could to help her, provided she would return his love and marry him. This the girl consented to do. When Magistrate MacFarland was notified of the matter he agreed to release the girl, after which he united the two in the bonds of wedlock. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Killefner received the magistrate's blessing and departed on a honeymoon trip to Atlantic City.

LIGHTNING'S WORK

AT HUNTINGTON

Residence Struck and Badly Wrecked by Bolt on Tuesday—Other Damages.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 14.—A single bolt of lightning Tuesday afternoon destroyed three rooms at the Lewis Stehr residence on Wright street, burned out numerous lead wires of the Huntington Light and Fuel company's lines, put telephones out and badly damaged the fire alarm and city light wires on the south side.

At the Stehr residence, where the lightning struck, the bolt seemed to follow the wires into the house. The weatherboarding was torn from the front of the house and thrown across the street, and three rooms, two in the upper story and the parlor on the first story, were demolished.

At the time of the crash there were none of the Stehr family at home. Mr. Stehr being at the shoe factory, where he is employed, the son at a neighbor's and Mrs. Stehr away spending the afternoon calling.

When the firemen arrived they found the house a wreck. Weatherboarding from the front of the house, pieces of glass from the upstairs window and the adjustable screens were thrown over the front yard and into the street, some being a distance of fifty feet from the house, and on the inside the rooms were a wreck, furniture being splintered and the plastering being knocked into bits. Curing the Criminal.

In the creation of a psychological laboratory in connection with the Indiana state reformatory at Jeffersonville, Major D. C. Peyton, superintendent of the institution, is taking an advanced step in prison science that will be watched with extreme interest, not alone in our own state, but, by students of prison reform and corrective methods of dealing with criminals everywhere. It is another step removed from the archaic belief that punishment of crime and the protection of the public are the sole purposes for which prisons are constructed and convicted persons cast therein.

Summarized, the new departure is an effort to apply the principles of psychology as a corrective measure—a sincere attempt to effect the cure of the criminal, if such thing be possible. It is based upon the scientific belief that the normal man does not commit crime; that before a serious infraction of the laws can occur there must be a mentality illy balanced and out of normal poise as a result of heredity, environment or an intellect that is lacking in some phase of development. Crime has been regarded for some years as a problem for the neurologist and the psychologist, but it is given to Indiana to be first of the states to establish in a reformatory institution a department that will devote itself to research along these lines. It is purposed to make a close-range study of each offender who is sent to the institution, to the end that intelligent effort may be directed toward the correction of mental conditions which led to his downfall, and his ultimate return to organized society with a new vision of life. There will be many, possibly, who will question the practicability of the effort now undertaken. There are many who will doubt the efficacy of psychology in dealing with much of the human flotsam and jetsam that constitutes so large a percentage of our prison population. And yet the experiment is one well worth trying, and it is a matter of congratulation that Indiana is to be the pioneer in the movement.

You will doubtless recall that but a few years ago the populist party was to be reckoned with in computing national results. Now six lonely delegates meeting in a little hotel parlor in St. Louis constitute the national convention of the populists. Neither the G. O. P. nor the progressives will need more than slight encouragement at this juncture to declare that six will be about all that will be left of the other in the course of four years.

Since an Italian barber in one of the suburbs of Fort Wayne fired four shots from a revolver at a delinquent patron in the effort to collect a bill of 40 cents, other patrons of that particular shaving emporium will doubtless hesitate before incurring obligations there that call for an unreasonable line of credit.

They are preparing a notable demonstration for Governor Marshall at Indianapolis next Tuesday when he is to be officially informed that he is the democratic vice presidential nominee, but it will not be a marker to the demonstration Indiana will give her favorite son in the way of a majority next November.

RAILROADS AND SAFETY.

(Indianapolis News.)

A verdict on a railroad wreck given in Chicago is unique of its kind. It comes from the railroad commission and concerns the "Q" wreck, by which thirteen lives were taken. It finds a misunderstanding by the railroad, but says this would not of itself have caused the collision; that two trains approached the tower not under control, which was a violation of orders, and that two other employees did not strictly adhere to rules concerning fog. Nevertheless, it says that the "unwritten law" it is well known, supersedes in practice the formal rules, and that trainmen are expected to "make time." So with this broad view it sees that these minor infractions were not responsible. The thing, the commission says flatly, that was responsible was high speed. This should be taken in connection with testimony at an investigation by the railroad, in which engineers testified that the present high speed was dangerous, that anything more than forty miles an hour was dangerous and that engineers did not want to run faster than that.

The commission summarizes its finding under these three heads as to the cause of wrecks generally. First, the public demand for dangerous speed by railroads. Second, the demand of the government for a similar fast rate for delivering the mails. Third, the yielding of the roads to these demands and so making speed with trains which they know is dangerous. Recommendation is made for advanced block systems, which also for schools of instruction, which all employees should be compelled to attend, and from among whom promotion should be made for those that display caution. Surely a more advanced stand has not been taken than this. Co-operating with it is the movement for safety, which has been organized on many of the large roads and which ought to be joined by all. Meetings of employees are held and emphasis placed on safety as the first consideration, not merely for the traveling public, but for the employes in the shop as well as on the train. The whole idea ought to become first in the railroads of America. We are the most reckless among all countries in the management of trains, and the same recklessness runs through our other procedures. We need a better discipline of life. Let the railroads recognize that the public demands fast trains, but also remember that the public like children often demands things that are dangerous. The railroads of the country owe it as a first and highest duty to say, "We will not run trains faster than we know is consistent with safety." Thus and thus only shall we ever lessen the death list, which numbers more than ten thousand persons a year (and which is increasing) and wounds fifteen times as many more. The motto of our railroads should be "safety first." And to make this good, an inflexible refusal should be made to yield to any demand that invades it.

TARIFF KEEPS PACE

IN PRESS DISCUSSION.

Extravagances.

St. Louis Republic: "It is the tariff which has so swollen the revenues of government as to breed a thousand extravagances."

"Most Important Question."

Charleston News and Courier: "Despite the heroic efforts which have been in progress for months to shift the issue, the tariff remains today the most important question before the American people."

"Point of Difference."

St. Paul Pioneer Press: "There is no great point of difference between the rank and file of republicans and democrats as to the tariff, the money problem or any of the other great questions of public policy."

Montgomery Advertiser: "The tariff is an old question, as old as the American government, but never was there passed any such program of wise and beneficent legislation as Oscar Underwood and his fellow democrats put through the house of representatives.

"There is No Escape."

Portland Oregonian: "There is no escape from the conclusion that a tariff which produces adequate revenue cannot be devised which does not at the same time protect some industries."

"Expanded Sales."

Philadelphia Bulletin: "The tariff issue, it is to be borne in mind, is not the specific readjustment of certain schedules, but whether or not the policy of a protective tariff, under which we have steadily expanded our sales to the world, is to be thrown to one side for a free trade experiment."

"From 1860 Onward."

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "From 1860 onward—the republican party, has stood for a scheme which would give adequate protection to every American industry which needed any protection. The country which was 'low' in the scale of nations in that field in 1860, now has a far greater volume and variety of activities than any other on the globe. The wealth of this republic equals that of any two other countries of the world, and its lead is constantly and rapidly lengthening."

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH OHIO?

(New York World.)

What is the matter with Ohio? In a state where every boy child is taught from the day he leaves his mother's arms that his first duty in life is to sacrifice himself for the public good and seek a political job, they have been having trouble to find a candidate for governor.

Ever since Rutherford B. Hayes was made president it has been the vested right of every adult republican in Ohio not only to want a job, but to be the only man fit to fill any job that might be open. At any time in the last forty years, if the rest of the country had been willing, Ohio would have manned all the federal departments, from office boys to cabinet officers, and still had a surplus of patriots ready to run things at home in the name of the republican party.

This year the first candidate for governor selected by the Taft people threw up the nomination in a fit of disgust, and it has taken weeks to find a substitute. In the end the man persuaded to run was their third or fourth choice.

Matters must be looking pretty blue this year for the Taft people, when it is necessary for any office to seek the man in violation of Ohio's most cherished tradition.

CONSCIENCE PACKAGE SENT.

Stolen Towels Returned by Former Employee of Laundry.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 14.—Manager W. R. Lageman, of a laundry at 2907 Pine street, has received an unsigned letter in a package sent through the mail at a cost of thirty cents and containing three handkerchiefs, one belt, nine hand towels and one bath towel. The letter read: "I am sending you some towels and clothes that I took when I worked at your laundry. I was given the blessing of Jesus Christ on my soul and have been saved. I must send them back. They are not the same towels I took, and clothes either, but some I got in place of them. I hope you will forgive me, as God does. If you are not saved I would advise you to seek the Lord while he may be found."

THE BUSINESS SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT FOR INDIANA CITIES

AN IMPROVED PLAN FOR CITY GOVERNMENT
NON PARTISAN EXPERT EFFICIENCY
CONTROL BY THE PEOPLE

(By the Publicity Committee, Business System of Government State Organization.)

SERIAL NO. 7.

The Board of Administration.

In the business system of government for Indiana cities, the board of administration is the operating branch. Its functions are legislative and executive. It consists of five departments, and at the head of each is a commissioner, one of whom shall be the mayor. These departments are:

Public affairs.
Public revenue and finance.
Streets, public property and improvements.

Public safety.
Health and sanitation.

The mayor is ex-officio head of the department of public affairs, and each of the other commissioners is in charge of the department to which he is designated. The board of administration is not an elective body. It is appointed by the board of councilors, which board also fixes the salaries of the members of the board of administration. The commissioners of administration are appointed for terms of four years, but may hold office at the pleasure of the board of councilors, and in this way long tenure is assured if the commissioners give satisfaction.

All of the affairs of the municipality are in the hands of the board of administration. It passes the ordinances, subject to approval by the board of councilors, carries on all public work and executes the laws. It is required to appoint a city clerk, a police judge and a city attorney. It is empowered to create all other offices and places of employment in the executive branch, to fill the same by appointment and to fix the salaries of appointments, as well as to discontinue such offices and places and dismiss such officials and employees. The commissioners in their executive capacity have all responsibility, but with abundant authority and ample powers to sustain and discharge that responsibility. Yet the entire board of administration and each member of it is immediately responsible to the board of councilors and may be summarily removed for stated cause. The mayor and each commissioner is selected because of his special fitness and capacity for his place. The commissioners enter office with no obligation, but their duty to the city. Political influence did not place them and it cannot remove them. Neither partisan bossism nor special interests can get anything of them. They must appoint, retain and advance subordinate officials and city employees under a merit system enforced by a non-partisan board of civil service commissioners, and franchises and other public grants and privileges must be approved by the board of councilors and finally confirmed by the people. Thus the board of administration is held strictly to its functions of managing the affairs of the city. To continue in office the mayor and the commissioners must give efficiency of management. The tenure of their offices will depend not on what may happen in an election, but upon their services to the community and the degree of satisfaction they create in the minds of the people. It is through the board of administration that results will be shown. It will operate in the field where the science of government and the science of business can work together, each the complement of the other, and so render the service and achieve the progress the people tax themselves to procure.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 14.—Because he is charged with selling the furniture, family plate and several plate glass mirrors to get money to show his friends a "good time," young James H. GET RID OF RHEUMATISM

Rubbing with liniments, blistering the affected parts, plasters, etc., are usually helpful in relieving the pains and aches of Rheumatism, but such treatment does not get rid of the disease, because it does not reach its source. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the nerves, muscles and joints, and produces the inflammation and swelling, and sharp cutting pains characteristic of the trouble. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic and not only a painful but a dangerous disease. S. S. S., the greatest vegetable remedy, goes into the circulation, neutralizes and removes the uric acid, and by building up the thin, sour blood, safely and surely cures the disease. S. S. S. makes rich, nourishing blood, which quiets excited nerves, eases the painful muscles and joints and filters out every particle of irritating uric acid from the system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

IN THE CHURCHES

SYNOD TO MEET

IN FORT WAYNE

Lutherans of Three States
Will Convene in August of Next Year.

1912 MEET CLOSED

Fort Wayne was chosen as the next meeting place of the Evangelical Lutheran synod of the Central district at the synod meeting which closed Tuesday at the St. Paul Lutheran church in Indianapolis. The sessions will be held in August of 1913. The Central district comprises Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky. A report of the financial conditions of the synod showed that it had no debt and that there was a surplus of about $30,000. The synod decided to turn the surplus over to the general synod, which covers the whole United States. A number of committee reports on matters of minor importance were received and approved.

Opposed to Secret Orders.
A part of the session on Tuesday was spent by the synod in hearing the conclusion of a paper by the Rev. G. Schumm, of Lafayette, who explained further why he thought Lutherans should disapprove of secret orders which have religious practices in connection with their rituals. Mr. Schumm said:

"Lodge religion wants to know nothing of one common confession of doctrine and faith, the doctrine concerning Jesus Christ and the faith in Him, but would stand as a religion, or creed, in which the various faiths or religions find what they seek and may abide therein."

Odd Fellows' Hymn Quoted.
In order to prove this point the speaker said that in the dedication of the temple of the Odd Fellows, at Baltimore, the following words were sung:

A temple where no narrow creeds protect the chosen few;
It holds alike deserved merit, the Christian, Turk and Jew.

"The confession of Jesus Christ," he continued, "and his word excludes all participation in the teachings and religious exercises of the lodge, and those who by their membership confess the religion of the lodge thereby debar themselves from partaking in the Lord's Supper."

Country Home Social.
Sections 3 and 6 of the Ladies' Aid societies of the Emanuel Lutheran church and the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, will be entertained Thursday, August 22, at the country home of Mrs. F. W. Geiseling, two miles north of the city at an ice cream social to be served from 5 to 8 o'clock p. m. Hot coffee and sandwiches will also be a part of the menu.

At Midweek Meeting.
Rev. C. Claud Travis, the pastor of the Wayne Street M. E. church, having returned from his trip abroad, will be at the prayer meeting services this evening at the church.

An Ice Cream Social.
There will be an ice cream social held tomorrow evening in the parlors of the Grace Reformed church.

If Mr. Bash accepts the nomination, Louis N. Litman, of Lagrange, who was considered a candidate for the place, will withdraw and devote his time in managing the affairs of the progressives in the Twelfth. Some regular republicans were of the belief that Will C. Geake, since he became a progressive in favor of a new party, would also be a candidate for congress, but Mr. Geake states this morning that he is not a candidate for any office on any ticket.

Candidates to Resign.
Local progressives also state that the republican party in Allen county is on its last legs, and announcement is made, following Tuesday night's meeting, that all county candidates nominated by the regular republican primary, with the exception of two, are ready to resign and affiliate themselves with the third party. Those who contemplate leaving the ranks of the regulars, to accept nominations at the progressive convention, will resign before the end of this week, according to rumors circulated today.

The progressives feel that the old party can no longer exist in this district and contending that most of the candidates already nominated are progressive at heart, will ask them to become third party candidates. It is said that this will mean a complete dissolution of the regular county organization.

Mr. Foster and Mr. Geake, both of whom attended last night's meeting, declare that there will be a few prominent democrats of the county nominated on the third party ticket.

Allen J. Vesey, district chairman of the republicans is at Lagrange this afternoon for a conference with the Taft leaders in that county. It is understood that the regular republicans are planning to place a new county ticket in the field, contending that the ticket already nominated is composed of progressives, with but one exception.

Houk to Hold Tight.
Amos E. Houk, county chairman, states that if the Allen county candidates contemplate affiliating with the third party, none of them have told him about it. It was rumored this morning that Mr. Houk himself was seriously thinking of resigning his office to become a worker in the ranks of the progressives, but this he emphatically denied this afternoon.

"I have not even considered such a move," said Mr. Houk. "I was made chairman of the republicans of Allen county, and I intend to continue in that capacity. I have given the third party movement no opening to start such a report."

Mrs. Bernstein Talked of Blowing Husband's Brains Out.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Florence Bernstein, on trial for shooting her husband to death, frequently had threatened to "blow his brains out" according to testimony given today. Further testimony that Mrs. Bernstein threatened to kill her husband because he refused to pay a $1,000 bill for a pair of diamond earrings was given by Julius Glick, a brother-in-law of the victim.

Scores of women spectators displayed emotion when Mrs. Bernstein, dressed in black, came into the court room.

happy solution for him to appoint Senator Dewey ambassador to France.

"Mr. Harriman came to Washington and a few days afterward I again lunched with him," continued Mr. Odell. His narrative was interrupted by questions, and every senator gave close attention.

Wanted Harriman's Help.
"He told me I was correct—that the president was anxious about the financial condition of the national committee and was anxious to have Mr. Harriman's help. Mr. Harriman said he asked about the senatorial matter and the president said that if it was necessary he would do as I requested."

"Mr. Harriman said he was ready to help the national committee. I suggested that he wait until the committee exhausted other resources before he gave assistance. Subsequently Mr. Cortelyou came to my office and said he was unable to raise the rest of the money for the state committee. The rest amounted to about $200,000. I said it was an embarrassing situation for me and he asked if I could help out. I replied that I would see."

"Later I called up Mr. Harriman and told him if he desired to help the national committee that it was the proper time to do so. He asked me to have Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou come down to see him. I communicated with them and they went."

Then the Cash Came.
"Later that day Mr. Harriman telephoned me that he had made arrangements for the raising of money and had raised $240,000 which he had turned over to Mr. Bliss. That same day Mr. Bliss came over and gave me the national committee's check signed by himself as treasurer, for $200,000."

After his story of the contribution Mr. Odell explained his relation with the national committee that year. He said that in July, 1904, an agreement had been made between himself and the national committee, represented by Mr. Cortelyou and Mr. Bliss, whereby the national committee was to give the New York state committee $500,000. In all $300,000 of an expected $500,000 was turned over before Mr. Cortelyou called on him to say he was unable to pay the rest.

"There was no question in my mind as to the success of the national and state tickets that year," Mr. Odell continued. "What embarrassed me was that I had agreed to give to the various district chairmen in New York, along the Hudson river and in the counties on Long Island, consisting of 2,900 districts and containing 800,000 voters, this $200,000 the national committee owed me."

White Lies, Perhaps.

Chairman Clapp called attention to Sheldon's testimony that Mr. Bliss had informed him that Mr. Odell was alarmed over the success of the state ticket and asked for help for that reason, and that the Harriman contribution was not made through the national committee, but through the state committee. Mr. Odell insisted that he was correct and Mr. Sheldon was in error.

"Some times a person in politics tells white lies," ventured Mr. Odell.

"What do you mean?" demanded Senator Clapp, "that Mr. Sheldon told this committee white lies?"

"Oh no. I mean that Mr. Bliss may not have given Mr. Sheldon the exact situation," returned the governor. Some senators suggested Mr. Odell might not have told Mr. Bliss the correct situation. Mr. Odell declared he was so close to Mr. Bliss that he would never have thought of concealing anything from him. Mr. Odell's testimony ended with a few questions about the campaign of 1908.

Wild Looking Explorers Got Into Store Clothes to Be Photographed.

Here are Capt. Swan Mikkelsen (on the right) and his companion, M. Iversen, Norwegians, who recently returned to civilization, appearing as wild after their stay of two years in northeast Greenland that, when they approached a whaling ship, the sailors prepared to shoot them for muskoxen. The two men would not permit themselves to be photographed until they were furnished with clothes by the sailors.

Mikkelsen and Iversen went into Greenland to find records which had been left by Mylius Erichsen, who perished in an expedition in 1907. After desperate hardships they found the dead explorer's diaries, hidden in various caches. Their dogs died, one after another, and the two men carried the last few weak, sick dogs on their sledges, killing them as they were needed for food.

consideration of anything but revenue. The principle of protection is disregarded entirely, and therefore it is not too much to say that the effect of these sweeping changes on the welfare of those engaged in these varied industries has been disregarded."

The president has said he also will veto the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill carrying riders to abolish the commerce court and limit tenure of office of civil service employees to seven years. By doing so the president would hold up his own salary, that of every member of congress and every employee of the United States courts. Speculation of the possibilities of passing the bill over his veto are being discussed and leaders are canvassing the house and senate.

COTTON TARIFF PASSES.

Nine Progressive Republican Senators Vote With Democrats.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The democratic cotton tariff bill passed the senate today 36 to 19.

It carried an amendment repealing all of the Canadian reciprocity act except the free paper provision. Progressive republicans voted for the bill were Borah, Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Kenyon, LaFollette, Poinsett and Works.

REPORTED TO SENATE.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The wool tariff bill, reported in the house yesterday over President Taft's veto was reported to the senate this morning. Democratic and progressive republican leaders are convinced they could not secure the necessary two-thirds vote to re-pass the measure in the senate.

TO KEEP HIS DOG HE REFUSES BED

Old Man in Court Holds His Pet and Won't Give Him Up.

ALSO REFUSES FOOD

New York, Aug. 14.—Frank Sartini, 70 years old and homeless, went to the Gates avenue court in Brooklyn to appeal to Magistrate McGuire to make his sons help him in his old age. The old man was accompanied by his faithful Irish setter named "Groco," which lay at Sartini's feet while his master told his tale.

"The old man declared that his sons 'do not want to be troubled with me any more.' Magistrate McGuire asked Sartini if he would not like to go to the almshouse, where he would have an abundance of food and a comfortable bed to sleep in. When the magistrate urged him, saying that the cold winter would soon be upon him, Sartini knelt down on the floor of the court room and clasped his Irish setter in his arms. His act startled the court and many collected around the strange picture of man and beast. An interpreter was called and he listened to the words of Sartini in Italian.

"He says," repeated the interpreter, "you Groco, my good friend. You no leave me, like the boys when you could have a warm bed, and many bones at some other place. You stick by the old man for fifteen years. The man up here, he say to me, go to the poorhouse for the winter. There you cannot come and there I will not go. If the boys will not help us we must do without. I do not care how cold the winter. If you are going to shiver, so will I. You, my good friend."

Before Sartini could leave the court Lawyer James Rea pressed a $5 bill into the old Italian's hand, and this was followed by a general contribution from those in court, which amounted to $15. Sartini says the money will keep him and "Groco" for a long time, the grown-up sons who do not want to be troubled with the old man, will not be summoned to court, at least not until Sartini and his dog again suffer from hunger.

BARTENDER AND CASH GONE.

Charles Seaman and $1,300 Disappear From Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 14.—Charles Seaman, a bartender, and $1,300 disappeared together last night from the saloon of George W. Ford. When Ford appeared at Central police station detectives began to look for Seaman, with a warrant charging him with grand larceny. Ford carries wage checks for the railroad men in Brightwood, and for that purpose supplied himself with $1,000 in cash from the bank late yesterday. He says there was about $200 in $300 in the cash register and he instructed Seaman to place the cash with that in the safe and lock the safe carefully. Ford went to the saloon late this morning. He had expected his bartender to open the place. He found no one had been there. The safe was open and the money was gone. Seaman's former home was in Martinsville, Ind.

GOITRE WAS THE CAUSE OF DEATH

Autopsy Held on Body of Ollie Finley, Who Died in Taxicab.

HUSBAND IS FREED

That a hemorrhage from the thyroid gland, or what is commonly known as goitre, caused the death of Ollie Finley, a negro woman who died in a taxicab Tuesday night, was shown by an autopsy held by Drs. J. M. and Frank Dinnen at the Peltier undertaking parlors today.

At the conclusion of the examination, which revealed beyond doubt that death was due to natural causes, Deputy Prosecutor Stephen A. Callahan ordered the release of Ben Finley, husband of the dead woman, who was picked up last night and held at police headquarters until the cause of death was established.

Information has been given to the police, coroner and prosecutor to the effect that the dead woman and Blanche Mourning, who was with her at the time of her death, were accompanied on the trip by two white men.

Blanche Mourning said she had called a taxicab last night so that she and the Finley woman could take a ride as both needed fresh air. They drove out north-east of the city and after a coughing spell the Finley woman was taken from the cab and revived, but died while an effort was being made to reach a physician by a fast run to town.

Ben Finley was picked up because he and his wife had had trouble at the Mourning home on Eureka street Sunday night when it was charged that she choked her and threw her downstairs. An enlargement of the neck was noticed when she appeared in the city court Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cleveland Bolyard, Popular New Haven Young People Wedded Today.

Bolyard-Helmick.

New Haven, Ind., Aug. 24.—One of the prettiest and most elaborate weddings ever held in this place occurred at the Methodist Episcopal church at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of an interested assemblage of relatives and friends, when Miss Inez Edna Helmick became the bride of Mr. C. Cleveland Bolyard. Promptly at the appointed hour the strains of the swan song, followed by the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, rendered by Miss Nellie Gurner, of Wabash, filled the air, heralding the entrance of the bride, who, unattended, passed up the aisle to the altar where they were met by the officiating clergyman, Rev. D. A. J. Brown, pastor of the church. In uniting these two man and wife, he employed the beautiful and impressive ring service. Little

Miss Hilda Gurner, of Wabash, niece of the bride, daintily attired, acted as ring bearer. The altar before which the vows were taken had been transformed into a paradise of beauty. Ferns and white and yellow blooming plants and cut flowers combined to add enchantment to the picture. The decorations at the residence were also white, yellow and green. In the parlor, diningroom, in fact, everywhere these harmonious tints lent charm to the wedding scene. The bride was exquisitely attired in a gown of real lace and embroidered over white silk, white slippers and white gloves. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Charles Helmick, brother of the bride; John Bolyard, brother of the groom; Charles Clark and Glenn Grubb acted as ushers. After the ceremony at the church the wedding party and members of the immediate families repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Helmick, east of town, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served. The gifts to the couple were most numerous, including almost everything that could be thought of, both ornamental and useful. Mr. Bolyard is a rising young business man of Fort Wayne of unusually exemplary habits and held in high esteem by all who know him. Mrs. Bolyard is an accomplished young lady and will be greatly missed in musical and church circles, in both of which she participated prominently. GIRLS IN WHITE ARE AT THE PARK

Biggest Fete Day of the Year Attracts Thousands to the Resort.

THE DRESS PARADE

Fort Wayne girls by the hundreds are at Robison park this afternoon taking active part in the ceremonies attending the white dress parade, one of the principal fete days of the year at the popular amusement resort. All cars going to the park, from early this morning until late this afternoon, were crowded, and Manager Williams expects to entertain one of the largest gatherings of the season during the day. The white dress parade is always one of the distinctive features of the year at the resort, and more have entered for the exercises today than ever before.

The program opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon when the queen, Miss Marjory Rohan, of Hoagland avenue, took her place on the throne erected especially for the purpose. She was quickly surrounded by her maids of honor, all attired in snowy white costumes. The parade through the park grounds started at 3 o'clock and was viewed by thousands of admiring friends and relatives of the girls. Fifty-five prizes are to be awarded by Mr. Williams this evening.

During the day musical programs are being rendered by the Packard band, and the band from the Indiana school.

PROTECT THE EARS.

Many cases of complete or partial deafness date back to water entering the ear passage in bathing. Plugs of cotton wool smeared with vasoline are simple safe-guards, and should always be inserted, but if, through oversight or accident, water does reach the drum, it must be holding the ear down, shaking the outside ear with the finger tips and inserting a twist of soft towel, be coaxed out as soon and as thoroughly as possible. Even then, too, it is wise to wear a wool plug for half a day.

BREAK HALTS ALL THE STREET CARS

City Lines Tied Up for 35 Minutes Shortly Before Noon.

WAS WIRE TROUBLE

For thirty-five minutes, beginning at 11 o'clock this morning, not a street car on the city traction lines moved, owing to the breaking of the trolley wire at the corner of Superior street and Spy Run avenue.

Before the damage could be repaired and the current turned on, the transfer car had become congested with children and their parents or caretakers bound for Robison park for the white dress parade this afternoon.

Hundreds of other people who had business engagements were detained long past their hour of appointment and the effect of the stopping of the street car services was quickly felt on many lines of business.

Cars were stalled along each square in the downtown district, some at the street crossing, and some on the curves. Occurring near the power plant and on the wires leading directly from the big dynamos, the breakage effected the entire city.

FLEMING PUT UP AN AWFUL FIGHT

Degenerate Convict Gave

Immel and Bobilya a Vicious Battle.

LANDED IN PRISON

Robert Fleming, a degenerate paroled convict from the Ohio reformatory at Mansfield, put up a vicious fight at 535 Holman street today, when Detective Sergeant Immel arrested him with the assistance of Louis Bobilya, a real estate dealer, who was called to the aid of the officer.

During the fight the middle finger of Immel's right hand was fractured and his face scratched and his side bruised severely, but he was on duty after he had his wounds attended to. Fleming sunk his teeth in Bobilya's left forearm and made a nasty wound. Both were treated by Dr. Kruse.

A few months ago Fleming was arrested here by Chief of Police Abbott and it was necessary then to choke him into submission and he was returned to the reformatory. Since his return to Fort Wayne after a second parole, complaints have been frequent at headquarters of a fellow who has been insulting women and one was received today from the electric lamp works, on Holman street. This was followed by another from Swinney park and Detective Immel was sent out to investigate.

He found Fleming at his home on Holman street and slipped a chain about his wrist, but the fellow began to fight and a big crowd gathered, but nobody could be made to understand that the officer wanted the patrol wagon called. Bobilya was called to the assistance of the officer and the two managed to hold the prisoner until the patrol arrived.

He will be returned to Mansfield and this time a request will be made by Chief Abbott that he be kept there, as he is not only degenerate, but dangerous as he fights every time an attempt is made to arrest him.

MISS BOARDMAN DECLINES.

Cross Head Criticizes Jane Addams for Political Work.

Manchester, Mass., Aug. 14.—Miss Mabel T. Boardman, president of the National Red Cross, announced today that she would not act as chairman of the advisory committee selected by the republican national committee to conduct the woman's work for the re-election of President Taft. Miss Boardman says that though she admires President Taft she does not believe anyone whose name has been closely associated with any great non-political work should permit the use of their name when such use would carry more or less the influence of the organization they were identified with. Miss Boardman frankly states that for this reason she holds that Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, has no right to identify herself with any political party. Miss Addams seconded the nomination of Col. Roosevelt at the progressive convention in Chicago.

FIRST CITY-BUILT STREET RAILROAD IN U. S. UNDER CONSTRUCTION IN SAN FRANCISCO.

After Six Years of Stubborn Opposition, City Won Fight Against Big Business for Municipal Road Through the Efforts of Organized Labor.

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—After six years of continuous fighting against "big business" and the United railroads, a traction corporation headed by Patrick Calhoun that controls the street railroads of this city, San Francisco at last has a municipal railroad well on the way to completion. So far as is known it is the only municipally built railroad in the United States, all other roads having been acquired after their construction. The work is being pushed forward day and night to get it completed.

The idea of a municipal road in San Francisco was conceived before the quake, and in March, 1906, a month before the great disaster, a contract was let by the city to build an underground conduit electric road 3.3 miles long from Kearny to Market streets—the heart of the city—out Geary street, where the franchise for the former cable line had expired. The disaster of 1906 prevented the construction of this road.

After the fire, the United Railroads company, a corporation with a physical valuation of $30,000,000 and a stock issue of $92,000,000, carrying $62,000,000 of watered stock, fought desperately the reopening of the proposition to build the Geary street municipal road, because they feared it would be opening wedge that would break their monopoly of the street car lines, probably making it impossible for them to pay dividends on their watered stock.

After years of fighting, this gigantic corporation was beaten in the courts by the city. The company then turned to "big business," which was heavily interested in the road, and demanded that they defeat the measure by refusing to buy the bonds that were voted by the people for the construction of the road. But organized labor, the state, and country bankers came to the rescue and took up the bonds and in July, 1911, the first pole was set and actual construction on the road began.

Barring unforeseen accidents, 5½ miles of double track will be in operation by December 1, 1912; 2.15 miles of this track is now ready for operation, having been built by the recent union labor administration. The contract for the remainder of the road requires that it be finished in 180 days; every day over that costs the contractor $250 per day—so it probably will be finished on time. The cost of the track now under construction will be $253,695.

Forty-three pay-as-you-enter cars, costing $337,100, will be operated on the road. To begin with, the fare will be five cents. If it is found that this can be cut down later without impairing the service of the road, it will be done.

That portion of the line that will be in operation this fall will extend from Market and Kearny streets to Thirty-third avenue, with a branch running to the edge of Golden Gate park, and will furnish much needed car service to a large residence section.

When the municipal road is complete, it will consist of 7½ miles of double track extending from the ferry, at the foot of Market street, across the entire city to the Pacific ocean. It will also include a $210,000 car barn and repair shop. The bonds voted for its construction total $2,020,000, but W. M. Larned, the engineer in charge of the work, estimates that its cost will be under that.

"We are going to prove to the people of the United States," he said, "that a municipal government can build a railroad cheaper and better than private capital. With a few exceptions the cost of materials and supplies that the city has been required to furnish according to contract has come materially under the estimate calculated by the city. In exercising this economy, nothing has been done that would hurt the efficiency of the road.

"A few changes suggested by Bion J. Arnold, traffic expert of national reputation now in this city to straighten out the congested car service, will be made in the route that the road will take. These changes will open a new residence section and will make it possible for working people to go to and from employment without the involved system of transferring, now necessary, which consumes a great deal of valuable time."

If the Geary street municipal road proves successful, it will open the way for public ownership of all street car lines in San Francisco, for as other municipalities expire the roads will be taken over and operated by the city, so it will be interesting to the country at large to watch how the first municipally built, municipally owned street railroad in the United States turns out.

RAPS PERKINS AND ROOSEVELT

Former Picked Pocket of Shroud to Aid T. R., Says Stanley.

TRUST PROBER HITS

Washington, Aug. 14.—Charging that George W. Perkins, formerly of J. P. Morgan & Co., "in his eagerness to aid his party and his hero, Col. Roosevelt, picked the pocket of a shroud" when he donated $50,000 to the republican party in 1904, Representative A. O. Stanley, of Kentucky, chairman of the house steel trust investigating committee, bitterly assailed the personal and political relations of Theodore Roosevelt and Mr.

A. O. STANLEY, Steel Trust Prober Who Flays Perkins and Roosevelt.

Perkins, in a speech in the house today. Representative Stanley spoke in support of his bill to make the report of the commissioner of corporations open to congress and charged that Perkins had been able to secure from Herbert Knox Smith, former commissioner of corporations, information which had been denied congress.

In speaking of a visit Perkins made to Washington Stanley said "he remained for weeks, oscillating between the department of commerce and labor and the white house with the familiarity of a friend and the insolence of an ally." The absorption of the Tennessee coal and iron company by the steel corporation was gone into at length and Mr. Stanley said "The severest critic of Col. Roosevelt can hardly conceive that he would in twenty minutes have commissioned the steel corporation to crush its last competitor, had he possessed one-tenth of the information which the commissioner of corporations was afterward forced by the investigation to publish to the world."

The progressive party also came in for its share of satire, Mr. Stanley re-

ROGERS ATTACKS DARROW'S FOES

Arraigns Forces Contributing to Lawyer's Indictment.

ARGUMENT GOES ON

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 14.—Again bitterly attacking the forces which contributed to the indictment and trial of Clarence S. Darrow, the Chicago labor attorney who defended the dynamiters, John J. and James N. McNamara, Earl Rogers, chief counsel for the lawyer charged with jury bribery, continued his argument before the jury today.

Rogers characterized the agreement in the McNamara case as a remarkable victory for Darrow and a heinous thing on the part of the district attorney. He said the McNamaras were guilty of a "hideous, horrible crime" yet the district attorney had agreed to allow only one to escape hanging, and the other to take a term of fifteen years in prison, but to allow Caplan and Schmidt, two of the men actually involved in the Times murder, to go free, provided they remained out of the county.

Attacking the testimony of Bert H. Franklin, Rogers argued if Darrow had known that Juror Bain was bribed early in October he would not have told Lincoln Steffens in the presence of E. W. Scripps, that he regarded the case as hopeless. The danger in Franklin's story, continued Rogers, was that all of it was true except small portions—particularly as to where he received the bribe money and who authorized the corruption of jurors.

FORT WAYNE MAN KILLED.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 14.—James J. Luzier, of Fort Wayne, Ind., 35 years old, a cigarmaker, was killed in a freight wreck on the Illinois Central railroad today at Kappa.

Despite the popularity of the automobile, the trotting horse still has its devotees, judging from the prizes offered at the various race meetings. Last year these prizes amounted in the United States and Canada, so it is reported, to more than $4,000,000, while in England they totaled $2,700,000. Ohio is now the leading state in the number of its professional horse races, followed by New York, Pennsylvania and Iowa.

GIRL FEARED THE TRIP TO ALASKA

Started for Good Home in Yukon But Became Homesick.

THEN TURNS ABOUT

New York, Aug. 14.—Just as the doors of opportunity were opening for 14-year-old Elizabeth Arnhold, of No. 829 Third avenue, Brooklyn, and Fortuna was beckoning her to a home of luxury and advantages in far away Fort Yukon, Alaska, homesickness reared its figure in her path and Elizabeth is in Washington, D. C., waiting for somebody to go and bring her back.

The girl's sister, Mrs. Frances Jensen, with whom she made her home, will answer Elizabeth's call, and take her from the house of detention in Washington, where she is held on the technical charge of being a fugitive from justice.

Mrs. Jensen explained her sister's situation. She said Elizabeth answered an "ad" for a servant girl. Then an elderly man called at their home who said he was T. H. Beaumont, a wealthy resident of Fort Yukon, Alaska. He said he wanted to take back a nurse girl for his year-old child, and promised to take good care of the girl and give her every advantage.

The idea appealed to Elizabeth, so the couple started. Beaumont stopping over in Washington on business, Elizabeth wrote a post card to her sister that she was homesick and wished to return home. She made no mention of Beaumont. At the request of the Brooklyn police Elizabeth was taken in custody.

According to Washington dispatches Beaumont was astonished when the officers told of their mission. He said he girl had not intimated a desire to return and that he would gladly have purchased her transportation. He had already bought two tickets for San Francisco and they were to have begun their trip across the continent. No charge was preferred against the man and he left for the west. He had spent much money on the girl since she left Brooklyn.

"I was afraid," was the only explanation Elizabeth would give the Washington officials.

The members of section five of the West Crighton Avenue Church of Christ will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Miller, 829 Belle avenue.

PROGRESSIVES TO NAME TICKET

Two Third Party Conventions Will Be Held in Fort Wayne.

LATE THIS MONTH

Colonel D. N. Foster, county chairman of the progressives in Allen county; Louis N. Litman, district manager for Roosevelt, and other third party leaders in the county and district, at a meeting Tuesday night, decided to put a complete county ticket in the field, nominate a progressive for congress and name somebody for the joint senatorial race on the new ticket.

For this purpose it was decided to hold a county and progressive convention in Fort Wayne on Saturday, August 31. The county convention will follow a meeting for the nomination of a progressive candidate for congress. It is planned to make the meeting one which will fittingly demonstrate the strength of the third party movement in the county and district. It is planned to have either Frederick Landis or Albert J. Beveridge here to deliver the keynote address, formally launching the new party in this section of Indiana.

Colonel Foster states that progressives on the republican county ticket will be asked to become candidates on the new ticket. If they refuse, an entirely new ticket is to be selected. A committee of five was appointed to arrange for the two conventions. Members of the committee are Dr. W. D. Calvin, Will C. Geake, Lee J. Hartzell, W. N. Ballou and D. N. Foster.

To Open Headquarters.

Progressives will open district and county headquarters in this city September 1. Louis N. Litman will be in charge and will employ a big office force to send out volumes of Roosevelt literature. It is said that the state committee has plenty of funds to conduct this work.

engagement ring in sight yet. Are all the men here discards, or don't the marrying kind come to summer hotels?

There's one poor doll that I know what's the matter with who gets the glassy eye from the Charles. It isn't because she's such a bad looking, although I'd hate to have a face just like hers. I wish on me for anything. Her main trouble is that she doesn't know how to play her cards. She's too easy to read. She goes into such a eager flutter when a man notices her that makes him stall and sidestep. It throws a scare into him. He at once sniffs a snare. A beau is most confident and trustful when you're fighting him off. I guess I know because I've been bridesmaid at a dozen weddings right out of the shop, and knew every one was going to happen before the feller did. But this poor skirt doesn't realize the right way. It's too bad, too, because she's pretty soon going to fall into the serious yellowleaf.

So she moons along the beach in a red bathing suit, as if that helps any when the boys have put a jinx on you, and pretends to read poetry with the book upside down. Would you butt in, if you was me, and put her wise?

Yours, with no complaint to make.

WHERE?

DRESSED (when last seen)—Blue linen suit, white shirtwaist, white Panama hat, long white gloves; no jewelry except plain gold wedding ring.

Mrs. Bogges, a comely young matron, disappeared from Kansas City, where she lived temporarily with her husband, Dr. John S. Bogges, a government surgeon, on the afternoon of Aug. 2, after having started out on a shopping tour.

Since then a nation-wide search has been made at the instance of her husband and father, Thomas J. Keating, a prominent lawyer of Columbus, O., where Mrs. Bogges, in her maidenhood days, was a society leader and skilled musician.

Mrs. Bogges was a sufferer from organic heart disease. It is feared that a blood clot on the brain has caused her to wander away, possibly to a city far distant from her home, having lost her own identity completely.

Instances of similar lost identity cases show that often the individual assumes another name and begins another life under new surroundings, remaining unconscious of the past.

Solution of the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mrs. Bogges may have been brought near yesterday by the identification as hers of the hat, gloves, purse and night robe found in a drifting boat near St. Louis. T. J. Keating, of Columbus, her father, made the identification by telephone.

WILL YOU HELP ME FIND MY DAUGHTER?

To the Readers of the Daily Sentinel:

I am asking this newspaper to publish a picture of my daughter, Mrs. Ethel Keating Bogges, who disappeared from Kansas City Aug. 2, together with a description of her, so that if anybody should see her or learn of her whereabouts in any manner, he or she will communicate with me at once.

Please show this picture and her description to your neighbors and friends in the hope that perhaps one of them may give me some information about our loved daughter, whom we are distractedly seeking.

For any aid in this search you may be able to give the heart-broken parents of our daughter bestow thousands of thanks.

BERRIES BETTER THAN COAL.

Miners Make More Picking Them, and Mines Run Short-Handed.

Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 14.—Prominent mining officials at various points in the Schuylkill region, where there has been a short-handed annoyance several weeks past, allege that many miners and their families spend day after day upon the mountains, since huckleberries have ripened, and that their net earnings from this industry often are triple what the miners would have earned cutting coal. The huckleberry crop this year has been a bumper one, it being estimated at 10,000,000 quarts in Schuylkill territory alone.

W. S. Gunsalus, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all dealers.

THE THIN AND WEAK

Easy Way for Them to Get Strong and Fat.

To thin and weak Meyer Bros. Co. has a word to say. Let them use Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, that is now so popular, and they will soon be plump and rosy.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh-forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained by the body.

The large sale Druggists Meyer Bros. Co. have had on Samose since they first introduced it in Fort Wayne and the wonderful results following its use have made them such enthusiastic believers in its great merits that they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose does not make thin people fat and restore strength and health.

When a gain in weight is noticed after Samose has been used for a week or ten days, and health has improved, and you notice yourself growing stronger, you certainly should feel more than satisfied with what you have received from the small cost of 50c.

COMMENCED ON SECOND TRACK

Piling at Street Crossing for First Track is in Position.

CHARLES BRADLEY BADLY INJURED

Caught Between Shifting Iron in Car and Both Legs are Broken.

The work of elevating the second track of the Wabash commenced this morning, when the pile driver and gang began setting the piling at Thompson avenue, the first street east of the St. Mary's river. The piling at the street crossing for the first track is all in position and Hannan and Hickey Brothers, who have the contract, have carried elevation of the first track to a point 150 feet east of Broadway. Division Engineer W. S. Danes, who is here today looking after elevation work, said that the company had decided to put down four tracks, instead of three, from the river bridge as far east as the tracks are elevated this summer, instead of putting in a fourth track some future day. The Pennsylvania pile driver commenced setting the piling for the second track at Harrison street, which will consume about six days. The piling for one track and the sleepers, ties and rails have been in position and the track in use for two weeks. The men engaged in putting up the superstructure at Calhoun street, completed the first bent last night and are now at work putting down the steel floor, which will be completed today and tomorrow, when the second or central bent will be installed.

BETWEEN SHEETS OF TIN

Was Charles Bradley Caught and Both Legs Crushed.

Charles Bradley sustained a compound fracture of the bones of his right and a simple fracture of the bones of his left leg yesterday afternoon when he was caught between stacks of sheet metal which shifted while he was at work in the car. The accident happened on the shop siding at the Fort Wayne Electric works and was the result of the Pennsylvania switching crew losing control of a car loaded with lumber and allowing it to rush down the track and strike the car in which Bradley was at work unloading the metal sheets. He was taken to the St. Joseph hospital, where he was attended by Drs. Schultz, Stemen and Macbeth, who believe he will recover. Mr. Bradley was a new employee at the Electric works, commencing work there Monday morning. He formerly worked awhile at the Wabash shops.

William Kintz, of 37 Portage avenue, cellar foreman at the Eckhart packing house, on West Main street, sustained painful bruises and bruises on his head and body and possibly slight internal injuries when he fell from the third floor of the building to the basement, down the elevator shaft. was in the basement and Mr. Kintz had occasion to cross the shaft as he came out of one of the cooling rooms on the third floor. As he stepped upon the safety platform over the pit it gave way and allowed him to fall upon the platform on the second floor, which also gave way, precipitating him with wreckage upon the elevator in the basement. He was taken to St. Joseph hospital, where the company's surgeon is attending him. The nine-year-old boy who was struck and killed by an automobile on July 27 was the son of Mr. Kintz.

Next week it is expected to commence putting up the structural steel part of the building and the work will be pushed so the building can be enclosed before cold weather sets in. McCormick had one of his thumb nails torn out while at work in the Pennsylvania tank shop yesterday, and T. R. Richey sustained an injury to one of his hands while at work in the Pennsylvania machine shop. The company's surgeon attended each of the unfortunate ones.

EMPLOYEES TO BE INSURED.

The Western Union Telegraph company and the American Telegraph and Telephone company have entered into an agreement whereby they will give each of their employees free insurance against life, accident or disability. There are 200,000 employees in the two companies and the insurance branch is to be maintained without aid from them.

SWITCHMAN HAS FOOT INJURED.

In an effort to push a drawbar in position with his foot at the east yards yesterday afternoon, Switchman Andrew Linneberry had the member caught and painfully squeezed. The main artery was severed, causing a hemorrhage that made the injury appear worse than it really was, and Linneberry and his comrades were badly frightened. Dr. C. B. Stemen attended the injured man at the St. Joseph hospital.

OUT INSPECTING PLANTS.

The stationary power plants for operating pumps and other machinery along the line of the Pennsylvania are being inspected and put in first class condition. Mechanist Frank Hebert, boilermaker H. W. RULES ARE OUT FOR FLOWER SHOW

Women's League Completes Plans for Exhibit by Children.

AT THE PLAYGROUND

The civic department of the Women's League has completed a list of rules and regulations governing entries for the children's flower show to be held Wednesday, August 21, at the Gullin playgrounds. Children from the following public and parochial schools are eligible to enter the contest:

Adams, James H. Stuart, Hanna, Hamilton, Highland, Miner, South Wayne, Washington, Jefferson, Clay, Harmer, McCulloch, Nebraska, Franklin, Bloomington, Rudisill, Lakeside, St. Mary's, St. Augustine's, Cathedral Boys', St. Paul's Lutheran, Concordia, Emmanuel and Zion's.

The children from Zion's Lutheran school took the largest order for seed packets last spring. The judges in the contest are as follows: Mrs. John B. Reuss, William Freuchenicht, C. W. Sperry, Mrs. Lee J. Ninde and Mrs. Fred Hoffman. Ladies from the College Women's club will assist the department at the exhibition booths in the playgrounds pavilion.

The Regulations.

Only school children from seven to fourteen years of age may enter.

Only flowers or vegetables grown from the seeds distributed by this department, through the schools, may be entered.

Flowers must be brought in a suitable vase or jar that will hold water.

Vegetables must be clean and dry, and laid in a basket, tray or plate.

Each competitor must have his name, school and street address written on a slip or card attached to his exhibit.

Competitors must be present. Parents, friends and teachers are invited to attend.

Exhibits may be entered from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m., but not later, on Wednesday, August 21.

Judging will begin at 2 o'clock, and no one but judges and the committee will be allowed in the pavilion.

As soon as the judging is completed, prize winners will be admitted first, and afterwards, all visitors.

At the close of the afternoon each exhibitor will be expected to claim his own property, unless he prefers the committee to send them to the hospital, which they will be glad to do.

List of the Prizes.

Prizes will be awarded as follows:

In each school represented, (a) for the best bouquet of flowers, forty (or more) gladiolus bulbs; (b) for the second best, thirty (or more) hyacinth bulbs; (c) for the best display of vegetables, fifty hyacinth bulbs. There will be no second prize in this class.

There will be a sweepstakes prize for the best flower exhibit, taken all in all, from anyone competing, regardless of age or school. The winner's photograph, enlarged and framed, from the George J. Parrot studio, will be hung in his school for one term, and after that time become his own property.

A sweepstakes prize to the school showing the largest number of exhibitors. This will be a choice between trees, planted in the spring, with appropriate exercises, an arrangement for ornamental shrubbery, vines to clothe bare wall space, or a flower bed.

Any child may take as many entries as he cares to, but no child is eligible for more than one prize.

Children of all the schools included in the distribution are urged to work not only for themselves, but for the honor of the schools to which they belong. Do not be afraid, but bring the best you have, and encourage your companions to do the same.

Bring your flowers early if possible, so that they may be arranged by the committee to the best advantage. The committee will be on hand to receive exhibits by 9:30 o'clock in the morning. It is urged that if you have a long distance to come, be there not later than 1 o'clock and remain for the afternoon.

PACKARD MUSIC HOUSE

FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

HOPE CITY WILL MAKE A RECORD

City Health Board's Enterocolitis Figures Remarkably Low.

SEND EXHIBIT ON

Local health board authorities are confident that at the International Health congress at Washington, D. C., during next September, Fort Wayne will make a name for herself among all the cities of the world in having the fewest deaths of infants, under two years of age from enterocolitis, the diarrhoeal disease. The exhibit showing the figures of all phases of Fort Wayne's health conditions has been prepared, and was forwarded this afternoon to Dr. J. N. Hurty, at Indianapolis, where it will be assembled with the exhibits from other parts of the state.

The enterocolitis figures show that there were 18 deaths resulting from that disease in 1909, 18 in 1910, and but 5 in 1911, and with but six weeks remaining of the enterocolitis season of four months in 1912, there has been but one such death. And in that case the baby's death really resulted from eating green grapes.

Enterocolitis and tuberculosis are among the diseases which can be controlled, and are generally regulated by the standard of milk maintained among the dairies. Dr. Gillis is the city meat and dairy inspector and to his vigilance in demanding that the milk be kept up to standard is owed the big share of credit for the few deaths from enterocolitis.

Some Other Figures.

The exhibit gives the figures on tuberculosis deaths during the past ten years as varying between 53 and 94 deaths per year, with a decrease since 1907.

Typhoid fever, diphtheria and scarlet fever are the uncontrollable diseases, but the city's low record of deaths from such diseases is considered good. Typhoid fever deaths vary from 5 to 15 per year; diphtheria deaths from 1 to 17, and scarlet fever deaths from 0 to 7 per year.

Figures on yearly deaths show an increase from 616 in 1902 to 552 in 1911, but of this latter number fully 200 occurred in the hospitals and half of those cases were from out of the city. Per one thousand population, the per cent. has increased from 10.62 to 12.90.

Births have increased from 847 in 1902 to 1,305 in 1911, a percentage increase per thousand from 14.60 to 19.66.

In 1909-1910, 1,690 dairy cattle were tested for tuberculosis, and less than 10 per cent. reacted to the test, showing tubercular germs in the system. These cattle were slaughtered under United States or municipal supervision.

All the figures given in the exhibit are charted, making the exhibit readily comprehensible and adding great interest to it. Dr. Crull, secretary of the board of health, will be the city's personal representative at the congress.
